

Leave the Wisconsin No-Call list alone. As it was in place before the National No-Call list, it should remain as it is. I do not want banks to call me for 18 months after I leave them. When business is discontinued, there is a good reason, and consumers should not be harassed for choosing a different financial institution.